PRESENTED BY

InsideOut
an SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT event

THE 5TH ANNUAL GIBSON GRANDSLAMJAM is returning to Austin, TX, February 3-4. Those of you who have attended in the past know that the GSJ combines two of my greatest loves — tennis and music.

On court, we welcome two of the young guns of professional tennis: Andy Roddick and Taylor Dent. Andy finished 2004 as the No.2 player in the world and led the U.S. Davis Cup team the finals. Taylor was a semifinalist at the 2004 Athens Olympic Games and brings his exciting serve-and-volley game to Austin.

They'll be joined by six-time Tour de France champion Lance Armstrong and Grammy Award winning singer/songwriter Sheryl Crow.

On the stage, we have a stellar lineup, headlined by the exceptional Gavin DeGraw, straight off his first U.S. tour.

In the past four years, we've had more than 25,000 people join us for GSJ — all to raise money and awareness for the Hope Foundation. The Hope Foundation, based in San Antonio, supports the largest clinical cancer trials organization in the world, with the vision of ending the pain and suffering that accompany cancer. I hope you will join us in helping the Hope Foundation continue its fight against all forms of cancer.

This is a special group of people - all donating their time and talent to help defeat cancer in our lifetime. Please join me in welcoming them to Austin. I look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Mike Mills of REM and Jim Courier jam at the 2000 GSJ.>

> Lance Armstrong and son, Luke, share a special moment with Andre Agassi at the 2001 event.
